About Us

St Edward's School opened in 1963 as Roman Catholic School serving the parishes of Poole. It took its name from the local Saint, martyred at Corfe Castle. Although little is known of Edward, as a teenage king with a strong Christian faith and a commitment to protecting the poor he provides an excellent role model for our young people. His story is told through our school badge with the crown of a king, the cross of Christ, a cup to symbolise his murder by poisoning and the blood of a martyr. The crown and cup also remind us of the Kingdom of God, and the "one cup in which we all share". (1Cor 10:16)

For many years, the school welcomed not only Roman Catholic families, but other Christians who were keen for their children to be educated in a faith context. In the early 1990's the school's second headteacher, Alan Murphy decided to formalise this arrangement and entered into talks with the Roman Catholic Church and the Church of England about St Edward's becoming a joint church school. A new covenant, setting out the values and principles behind the commitment was signed by the Bishops of Plymouth and Salisbury in 1993.

From then on, the school has continued to grow in success and popularity. The vision of the school is to provide an excellent education, in a comprehensive and co-educational context that develops the character of young people through the St Edward's Virtues, while safeguarding their experience of childhood.

Letter from the Headteacher

Thank you for your interest in joining St Edward's School. I am delighted that you are considering becoming part of our vibrant and caring community.

At St Edward's, we are committed to preparing young people to live life to the full. We believe that this preparation is best facilitated within a supportive environment that nurtures spiritual and moral development alongside academic excellence. As a joint Roman Catholic and Church of England Voluntary Aided School, Christian values are at the heart of everything we do, guiding our mission to help students become beacons of light to future generations.

Our school is a truly comprehensive and inclusive community, welcoming over 1000 students aged 11 to 18 from all faiths and none. We are proud to be heavily oversubscribed and recognised for our distinctive ethos and high standards. Ofsted, in their most recent inspection in 2022, celebrated our positive learning culture and respectful, kind, and polite students. Our curriculum was praised for being ambitious and challenging, preparing students strongly for future success. In 2023, our Church School Inspection rated us "Outstanding" in all areas.

We have the highest expectations of our students, who leave us ready to attend some of the leading universities, pursue exciting careers, or take empowered next steps in their learning journey. We aim to nurture respectful, resilient, and curious lifelong learners—confident young adults who can connect with others, overcome barriers, and believe in their own limitless potential.

Our staff are central to our success. We value every colleague and the unique contribution they make, regardless of their role. Staff at St Edward's are encouraged to be creative and to grow professionally in ways that inspire them. We invest heavily in professional development so that all staff continue to find joy and fulfilment in their work. Our ambition is for your career to be rewarding and satisfying, and for you to be happy in your role.

St Edward's is a happy place to learn and work. Every member of our community plays a vital role in maintaining our ethos and values. We do not make excuses for poor behaviour, but instead foster a culture of compassion, growth, and high expectations.

I am proud of our wonderful students, our dedicated staff, and our supportive governors, parents, and carers. I hope that your experience of us will lead you to believe that St Edward's is the right home for you. We would be glad to speak with you or welcome you for a visit if you'd like to find out more
